

THE DIRECTORS IRCLE

WHY OUR DONORS JOIN

“I joined the very day I heard about the Directors Circle. I can’t imagine any activity where you can have that much of an impact on so many people for $1,000.”

— Richard Z. Kabaker

“The quality of information and discussion that you get on The NewsHour with Jim Lehrer, on Here and Now and throughout the schedule is, I think, unmatched anywhere on the dial.”

— Joe and Mary Ellyn Sensenbrenner

“Wisconsin Public Television is a home for our traditions, art, culture and history, providing us with the best in news and analysis. Nowhere else can we get these qualities in our privately owned media. Preserving our public stations is imperative.”

— Phil and Marilyn Hansotia

“When you have very little time as we do, it is important to know you can turn to quality programming and use your time wisely.”

— Elaine and Erroll Davis

“With government funding continually being reduced, it's more important than ever that we ‘step up to the plate’ and help make up the shortfall. Public Television is too important to us to allow it to fade away from our daily lives.”

— Mildred and Marv Conney

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

- Borrowing privileges from the Video Library. Videocassettes from the past 60 days of WPT programming are available.
- An open-door invitation to join us for a Digital TV luncheon and station tour.
- An invitation to attend the annual Directors Circle recognition event and other special receptions and previews.
- A subscription to Airwaves. This WPT programming guide can also be sent to special friends or relatives.
- Annual recognition listing in Airwaves and the Wisconsin Public Television Annual Report (unless you wish to be anonymous).
