The Wind Blew

By Pat Hutchins

The wind blew, and blew, and blew! It blew so hard, it took everything with it: Mr. White's umbrella, Priscilla's balloon, the twins' scarves, even the wig on the judge's head. But just when the wind was about to carry everything out to sea, it changed its mind.

With rhyming verse and colorful illustrations, Pat Hutchins takes us on a merry chase that is well worth the effort.

Before you read this book, talk about what the wind is; what it does; how it feels.

Also, see if you can collect all the items that the wind blows: umbrella, balloon, hat, kite, shirt, hanky, letters, wig, scarves, newspapers, etc. Have them ready when you read the book.

While you read this book, look at the pictures and see if you can guess what will blow away on the next page.

Then read the book again and have your child help you put all the items in the correct order while you read.
