Corduroy

Story and pictures by Don Freeman

This is a classic story of the teddy bear full of adventure at the department store. Join Corduroy on his search for a lost button and a home.

Before you read this book, ask your child to bring a favorite bear or stuffed animal to also share the book.

While you read this book, ask your child about the escalator. Is it a mountain? What does an escalator do?

After you read this book, make a "piggy bank" for your child. Use an empty, clean, milk carton, and cover it with plain paper. Let your child decorate the paper. Talk about Lisa's piggy bank and saving her money to buy her "very own bear."

A Pocket for Corduroy

Corduroy longs to have a pocket. When left in the laundromat, he conducts an intensive search for the perfect one and gets all washed up!

WISCONSIN BOOKWORMS™: Giving young children an opportunity to be read to and own their first new books, this project is supported by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting with additional funding provided by Friends of WHA-TV Inc, WAHCE and local county-based partners.
