Description: The yo-yos of yesteryear have been magically updated for the 21st century, and this old-fashioned embellishment is now anything but conventional. Learn easy ways of making fabric yo-yos, from the basic circle yo-yo to variations that simulate leaves, flowers, and hearts. Explore ways of adding a few fabric yo-yos to a project as a simple accent. Or, see how to feature yo-yos on a holiday banner, a fabric photo frame, a Daisy Patch Table Runner, or Cherry Blossoms Wall Hangings. You'll be impressed with the versatility of this easy-to-create embellishment.

Part 1: Make fashionable fabric yo-yos that sport a brand new attitude.

Nancy and guest Donna Fenske demonstrate easy, contemporary ways of making yo-yo circles, hearts, and flowers; then use them as dimensional accents to decorate projects and make adorable fabric critters. The magic is in the simple process used to create these yo-yos with pizzazz.

Part 2: Give traditional designs contemporary appeal using yo-yos.

Use yo-yos to add dimensional personality to the holly, tree, snowflake, and ornaments on a delightful banner for the holidays. Nancy and Donna Fenske share new ideas for including yo-yos as part of exciting decorations and embellishments. Circles, flowers and hearts—all are featured in these charming projects!

Part 3: Incorporate yo-yo accents into artistic projects.

Accent fabric frames, wall art, and table runners with floral yo-yo variations. Nancy and guest Donna Fenske combine elegant fabrics, beads, and fabric embellishments with floral yo-yos to add interesting texture and artistic dimension to the projects they demonstrate in this program.
